1 - JONAS HARTMAN - born in Penn. Jan 8-1817 - died Nov 28-1895. Married Sarah Kepler Nov 24-1842. She born Oct 9-1818 d Apr 18-1897. Both buried in Sharon cemetery, Johnson County Iowa.

He came to Liberty township, Johnson County Iowa April 11-1839. Liberty township was one of the first settled in the county. For shelter they would at first dig a hole in the side of a hill. The location being close to the north and south trails and also to the trading posts, the area filled up rapidly.

Jonas bought his first claim in 1840, gradually adding to it, until he eventually owned over two hundred acres. His wife did the first weaving in Liberty township, He was industrious, honest, respected by all, and charitable almost to a fault. His neighbors usually called upon Jonas to settle their difficulties, as his judgement was so highly respected.

The first burial in the Sharon cemetery, 1846, was of a man named Edwin Bowden. He had six brothers-in-law. They were Carr Hartman (no relation to Jonas) - Asa Bailey - Jonas Hartman - Squire Ford - Zenus I Grout - and Wm B Ford - all of whom married daughters of Jacob Kepler.

To Jonas and Sarah were born ten children.
